

THE 1962

SAGITTA

The Sagitta
1962

The title 'The Sagitta' is written in a large, elegant, cursive script. Below it, the year '1962' is written in a large, bold, cursive font. In the background, there is a faint watermark or crest featuring a shield with a large letter 'S' in the center, surrounded by a decorative border. Below the shield is a banner with the word 'SUFFIELD' written on it in a serif font.

DEDICATION

Four eventful years have passed leaving each of us with happy memories of our years at Suffield High. Now as we look back on those years we notice that four people seem to pop up everywhere. They chaperoned our Junior Prom and Senior Ball, helped our treasurers balance their budgets. They shared our sorrows and our joys. They helped plan our class banquet, wrote letters of recommendation to our colleges, and helped make this yearbook possible.

We cannot think of our stationery drive without seeing Mr. Atkinson explaining how to fill out order blanks or adding up long columns of figures.

Our yearbook would have been lost if Mrs. Parry hadn't helped plan pages, proofread copy, and figure costs.

Miss Biggerstaff spent much of her time making the Reader's Reflection one of the best school papers in the East. She has encouraged many of us to publish our literary efforts in this paper.

Miss Biggerstaff

Mr. Greenleaf

Mrs. Parry

Mr. Atkinson

Miss Biggerstaff

We cannot think of Room 28 without seeing ourselves lined up at the blackboard plodding our way through one of Mr. Greenleaf's "quickies". Those of us who are college bound are certainly glad we can do those "quickies". Speaking of the college bound we find it difficult to believe that we would have gotten as far as we have if Mr. Greenleaf hadn't spent so much time telling us the details of filing applications, taking SAT tests, etc. Our scores on the Verbal section of the SAT tests were probably much improved by the work Miss Biggerstaff had done in preparing us for the tests. We can also thank her for a great deal of knowledge of college English.

For these reasons and many others, we, the Class of 1962, are proud to dedicate this book to our class advisors.

Mr. Greenleaf

To the Class of 1962:

Not only is graduation a time of finishing a phase of your education, but also it may be a starting point for many fine opportunities. There are educational challenges ahead for all of you, whether you enter a vocation immediately, join the armed services, or enroll in a college. Rapid advances in technology and increasing demands of intelligent citizenship require you to strive continually to keep your education up to date. More and more adult education opportunities are developing through evening courses, through television, through universities, through the armed services.

Your education at Suffield High School can form a foundation upon which you may build further. Through your efforts to date you have won a diploma — through your continued efforts you may add to the significance of this diploma.

Congratulations on your past accomplishments which have earned you this distinction. Best wishes to you in your future endeavors as you bring credit to yourself and to the standards of Suffield High School.

Principal

To the Class of 1962:

We hope you have enjoyed your years at Suffield High School. It has been interesting to see you grow and develop from eager seventh graders to confident seniors. May this growth and development continue through the years—your goals achieved, your success established, your dreams come true. These are all possible through determination and effort. Soon you will be traveling your separate ways. With a solid background, your task will be easier.

Your teachers join me in wishing you success in the future. We hope you will continue to think of us as your friends and visit us when time permits. One of the gratifications of teaching is to help the youth of today become the leaders of tomorrow. It will be interesting to see how well we have done our job.

May each of you enjoy a happy and useful life.

Edward L. Ryan
University of Connecticut, B.A., M.A.
Assistant Principal

We of the Class of 1962 would like to thank you, Mr. Ryan for all you have done for us.

Many of us can remember the interesting English and History classes you conducted a short time ago.

Those of us on the Senior Patrol are especially grateful for the work you have done as our advisor.

Elizabeth M. Biggerstaff
Bennett Secretarial School
School Secretary

Betty, we'll never forget you. Many of us may not know the number of passes you have written for us, transcripts you typed for us, or tiny details you have taken care of to make our years at Suffield High more enjoyable, but we all know that we will always have one special friend in the SHS office who is always ready to do her best to cheer us up.

Mrs. Henry Gownia
Seattle Secretarial School
Guidance Secretary

Although we don't know you too well, we do know what you have done for us. By doing the secretarial work for Mr. Drewniany you have left him free to work more directly with us.

Henry Drewniany
University of Massachusetts, B.A., M.S.
Director of Guidance

What college? Where? Can I afford to go there? How do I make out the application? How do I go about applying for a job? Should I be a Doctor or a Businessman? What courses should I take?

How many times have you answered these questions and many others like them. Thank you, Mr. Drewniany for helping us find our futures.

CLASS HISTORY

As fate would have it, we entered Suffield High as freshmen in September, 1958.

It didn't take long for the East Granby students to become an important part of our class.

In the early fall we elected our class officers. Toby Moffett, President; Chris Bart, Vice-president; Judy Johnson, Secretary; and Diana Scott, Treasurer.

Then that day of all days—Latin Club Initiation, those silly pig tails and crazy clothes—Oh, how time flies!

Remember the Co-championship in soccer with Hale-Ray. The final game turned out in an exciting one-one tie.

During the year, we held a record hop which was a great success and helped fill our class treasury.

In the spring of that year, some of the budding artists took a trip with Miss Poirier to Norwich Free Academy to see different types of art and get some new ideas to take back to Suffield.

Julie Grabowski was the only freshman to make the cheering squad.

—And the band played on . . .

The first thing we did in our sophomore year was elect class officers. President, Toby Moffett; Vice-president, Chris Bart; Secretary, Julie Grabowski; and Treasurer, Diana Scott.

The biggest thrill of the year was getting our class rings; they even made a special size for Pete Lawler.

Our treasury was increased by selling personalized stationery that year, and by the way, aren't there some boxes still left over in Mr. "A"'s office?

Do you remember the tension of the last 3 seconds of the Class C Basketball Championship? What a game! Our team won 64-62! Boy, that was close!

Sharon Jenkinson joined Julie on the cheering squad.

—And the band played on . . .

Another year, another championship.

1961. The year of women suffrage, after a long and hard battle, Diana Scott became President; Chris Bart, Vice-president; Julie Grabowski, Secretary; and Susan Zera, Treasurer.

This time we won the Class S soccer championship alone by defeating Hale-Ray 1-0! It was the first time in 57 games that they had been beat.

We were all proud of Pauline Lanati and Gregg Magnuson who made the All State Band.

The United Nations really impressed us, however, we shall never know how we impressed the U.N.! Though the previous classes journeyed to New York on trains, we pioneered the way on buses.

That year we sold stationery again along with Christmas ribbon and wrapping paper.

Oh! Those Saturday afternoons we painted and hammered for the Junior Prom—"Dusk" was the most beautiful prom in the history of the school.

Sharon Jenkinson made a lovely queen along with her court. Members of the court were: Carol Smiegel, Carol Sweeney, Diana Scott, Judy Johnson, Susan Zera, Virginia Mills, Pam Eisold and Anne Kennett.

Julie Grabowski and Sharon Jenkinson were chosen co-captains of the cheering squad. Diana Scott and Judy Clarke were members of the squad, also.

Our contribution to Nutmeg Boys State and Laurel Girls State respectively were Gregg Magnuson, Gary Larson, Cheryl Underhill and Patty Cowles.

That spring election found Toby back in his office as President, helped by Diana Scott as Vice-president; Julie Anne as secretary and Clem Gogulski hunting dues.

—And the band played on . . .

The Grande Finale! Our big year—Senior Year found Roberta Nichols diligently working on the yearbook.

The record-breaking Community Chest Drive came next, Peter AuCoin and Suzanne Hambleton were co-chairmen.

In November, six new members were inducted into the National Honor Society. They were: Genie LaMonica, Virginia Mills, Frani McGinnis, Roberta Nichols, Toby Moffett and Carol Kamm. Cheryl Underhill and Gary Larson were inducted last year and are present members of this year's Society.

Then on November 11th, we took a trip to the United States Military Academy at West Point. After touring the grounds, we watched the cadets win an easy football game over William and Mary College.

We can't forget the Magazine Drive with eight teams participating. In the end, Sandy Goodell's came out on top. Beverly Horanzy, Mike Supple and Evelyn Banach were other top winners.

On December 2nd we took a night flight to Paris. (Under Paris Skies) was our wonderful Senior Ball. Diana Scott was chosen queen, with Patty Cowles, Judy Johnson, Joan Casinghino, Nancy Hurd, Marge Woodward, Pam Eisold, Genie LaMonica and Susan Crocker as attendants.

Patty Cowles was the recipient of the D.A. R. award.

The Spring of our senior year was filled with many happy times and we are all sure we will always remember our class of "62".

CLASS PROPHECY

By Judy Clarke and Joan Casinghino

Judy: "Golly Joan, I sure am tired; are you?"

Joan: "Yes, it's really getting late. I suppose we'd better retire — okay?"

Judy: "Fine with me." zzzzz

Joan: "See that boat in the harbor? How about taking a cruise?"

Judy: "Do you think Toby will mind? After all, he bought out the U. S. Navy after he graduated from Annapolis."

Joan: "Oh, he'll never find out. Come on, let's go."

DAYS LATER

Judy: "Let's get off here. I just love Paris."

Joan: "Okay! Wow! Look at the crowd." I wonder what's so interesting."

Judy: "Let's go see. Why, it's the world famous trio with Tom Bernier as lead singer. The other two vocalists are Gregg Magnuson and Joe Backurz."

Joan: "Isn't that Donna Bellew, the leading Paris dress designer?"

Judy: "Yes, and her escort is William Ridel, the Treasurer of the U.S."

Joan: "Why, there's Nancy Calder, President Ritter's private secretary. She certainly is beautiful."

Judy: "There is too much hub-bub in Paris; let's go to Rome!"

Joan: "Did you hear that Charles 'Chick' Miller has recently redesigned the Roman Empire?"

Judy: "He has? Let's go see."

Joan: "All the comforts of Suffield; electric doors, plastic roads, and air pressure houses."

Judy: "Why, there's Miss Universe of 1972! I wonder if we can get near her. I think her name is Jaron Senkinson or Sharon Jenkinson, or something like that."

Joan: "See that combination aeroplane and car? Paul Allard, the European Aeromobile designer, created that."

Judy: "It sure is different. I understand he is engaged to the new owner of the Empire State Building—a Miss Sandra Goodell."

Joan: "Isn't that David Glaeser, the world famous surgeon? I understand he is doing charity work in the jungle with Bruce Glasscock, the neurosurgeon. Ooooh, I've suddenly got a headache."

Judy: "Look at his attractive nurses—Donna Stiles, head of Pediatrics, and Judy Johnson, from Orthopedics."

Joan: "See that church — well, let's go and visit Father Miarecki."

Judy: "Okay, and while we're there, let's stop and see Mother Superior, Susan Walker."

Joan: "Susan—I mean Mother Superior—certainly has changed."

Judy: "I'll say. She's not the same ol' comical girl she used to be."

Joan: "Look at that gigantic high school. Did you know that Susan Zera is principal?"

Judy: "Golly, she must be a genius. I understand Diana Scott is the Spanish teacher and Danny Broughton is still trying to graduate from her class."

Joan: "Bobby Duni is the girls' physical education teacher. That must be interesting, and Cherrie Underhill is the Business teacher."

Judy: "Patty Cowles is still trying to teach Gary Larson to play the piano, but he just can't seem to find middle 'C'."

Joan: "Look at that gorgeous 1972 Lighteningbird. It must be about 900 horsepower. Why, it's Andy Davies! Let's see if he'll sell it."

Judy: "Gee, he was very reasonable. Only $20,000. Let's go for a ride."

Joan: "Oh no, a flat tire!! Let's call Pomeroy's Fix Flats Fast Service."

Judy: "Great! Now that we're back on the road, let's stop and see a Broadway show."

Joan: "But aren't you forgetting something?"

Judy: "No, what?"

Joan: "We're only in Rome!"

Judy: "Oh, that's right. Well, that's easy to fix; let's go to New York."

BACK IN NEW YORK

Joan: "Strike Me Black", starring Barbara Sturtevant and Walter Showran, is playing. Come on, let's go in."

Judy: "Ask the usher for a — why, it's Robert Phelps!"

Joan: "Oh, Judy, look! Roger Godfrey is the villain, and he's trying to stab Pauline Lanati."

Judy: "I just knew Robbie Parsons would save her."

Joan: "Why don't we get some pop corn?"

Judy: "Okay. Why, it's Patty Bielonko—the peppy pop corn girl!"

Joan: "Get your feet off the chair. Here comes Bobby Phelps again. Let's leave!!"

Judy: "Whoops, a funeral! It's Tom Bazyk, the undertaker. I wonder who he's taking under?"

Joan: "Thank goodness it's no one that we know. For a minute I thought it might be John Whitney, but he didn't die, he was only injured when he smashed up his stock car."

Judy: "Isn't that the glamorous Julie Grabowski? I understand she took over Brigit Bardot's role in that fabulous movie "Under Paris Skies."

Joan: "Here comes a parade led by Pam Eisold, head majorette."

Judy: "And there's Mike Barry as the clown, Marge Woodard as Miss New York 1972, and Dave Johnson as the technical engineer."

Joan: "Let's go to Washington and see Secretary of Agriculture, Harrison Griffin. I hear John Mrosz might put him out of his job next term."

Judy: "Peter AuCoin is running against President Ritter next term. I hope he makes it."

Joan: "There's a cabinet meeting going on. Let's look in."

Judy: "There's a new department headed by John Atkinson. It's called the Department of Chemistry."

Joan: "And there's Genie LaMonica, Mr. AuCoin's press secretary."

Judy: "There's John Wilcox, Secretary of State; Roger Laumark, Secretary of Defense, Joe Testa as Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, and Donald Sladyk is their chauffeur."

Joan: "Isn't that Peter Lawlor, President Ritter's veterinarian?"

Judy: "Yes, it sure is! It's sort of stuffy in here. How about going out for air?"

Joan: "Why, it's Chris Bart, Air Force General, and Pete Seidler, an Army five star General, and Eddie Pelczar, Marine Colonel."

Judy: "Here comes Bob Allen driving a bus. Let's take it."

Joan: "Stop at the hairdresser's and we'll get a permanent."

Judy: "Joyce Hayes is the owner. I understand she does an excellent job."

Joan: "And the hairdressers working for her are Nancy Fairman, Lucille Gingras, Nancy Hurd, Mary Viets, and Pam Tuvek."

Judy: "Did you see that movie star with green hair?"

Joan: "That was Evelyn Banach, Miss Theater House of 1972."

Judy: "Hey! There goes Russell Brackoneski in his new scooter. Did you see who was on the handle bars? It was Judy Fish!"

Joan: "There's Susan Crocker, going into the Peppermint Lounge. I understand all the men are crazy about her."

Judy: "Oh no! Another flat tire! Let's call Tom Beresford's How To Fix It Garage. Did you know that his top mechanics are Bill Kuras, Dick Welch, Dick Tower, Dick Taylor, and Bruce Larson?"

Joan: "We, now where will we go? First, let's cross this street. Why there's Virginia Mills, the editor of Life Magazine. She's having an argument with Roberta Nichols, the editor of Look Magazine."

Judy: "There's Beverly Stolynas, the policewoman, stopping a bank robbery."

Joan: "Why Dick Kraiza is the bank robber! Oh no, he's the public accountant. Had me worried for a minute. I understand Beverly Horanzy is his secretary."

Collision.

Goal.

1960 brought together a good soccer team, but unfortunately, fourteen were seniors and graduated. Therefore, in 1961, our defense did not have one returning player and our offense had only three "first stringers" back.

Mr. Shelds, our new coach, and his assistant, Mr. Galiatsos, decided to play the European style of soccer. They showed us that, by short passes, we could go down the field and score.

Because of our coaches, we built a team with a solid defense. Our offense and defense combined to make a 12-4 record in our first year of class "B" competition.

A good try.

Finishing the year with an eleven-five record, the 1961 baseball team was one of the most successful in the history of Suffield High. The Top pitcher was Bill Massaro, he won three games and lost none. He was backed up by two outstanding hitters; Dave Lill who hit .450, all but two going for extra bases, and Rod Ritter who hit .315.

Mr. Atkins, ably assisted by Mr. Regalbuti, deserves much credit for this success. Without their patience and coaching, the team's efforts would not have yielded as much. Six of eleven returning boys are seniors, making it very probable that we won't miss the tournament by a hundredth of a point in 1962.

It takes a little courage
And a little self-control
And some grim determination,
If you want to reach the goal.
It takes a deal of striving
And a firm and stern-set chin,
No matter what the battle,
If you really want to win.

There's no easy path to glory,
There's no rosy road to fame.
Life, however we may view it,
Is no simple parlor game;
But its prizes call for fighting,
For endurance and for grit;
For a rugged disposition
And a "don't-know-when-to-quit."

You must take a blow or give one,
You must risk and you must lose,
And expect that in the struggle
You will suffer from the bruise.
But you mustn't wince or falter,
If a fight you once begin,
Be a man and face the battle—
That's the only way to win.
